

We've Got Your Back!

College Completion Conference

What Works for Vulnerable Youth

Inspired conversations with experts that include:

- ❖ Bridging the Gap for Homeless Youth and Foster Care Students
- ❖ New Beginnings for Refugee and Immigrant Students
- ❖ Second Chance for Court-Involved Students
- ❖ How Community Colleges Address Challenges of Poverty
- ❖ A Community Based Organization Perspective on Removing Barriers
- ❖ How Universities Address Underserved Transfer Students

Vulnerable youth often lack the safety net or access to resources and supportive adults from which other youth benefit. Learn and share solutions to strengthen completion rates among our most vulnerable students including homeless, foster care, refugee, immigrant, court-involved, in poverty, and underserved transfer students.

Friday, July 15, 2016

9:30-3:30

Mohawk Valley Community College

Register online: tinyurl.com/OnPoint2016

$25 Registration (scholarships available)

Continental breakfast and lunch provided

Guest Speakers:

- Cyekeia Lee, Director of Higher Education Initiatives, National Association for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth
- Jorge Montalvo, NYS Deputy Secretary of State for Economic Opportunity, NYS Office of New Americans
- Alan Rosenthal, Esq., Co-Director of Justice Strategies of the Center for Community Alternatives
- Dr. Randall Van Wagoner, President, Mohawk Valley C.C.
- Virginia "Ginny" Donohue, Executive Director, On Point for College
- Dr. Lorrie Clemo, Provost, SUNY Oswego, First in the World Grantee

